FeelExim – Exporters of Premium Indian Spices

India is the world's largest producer and exporter of turmeric. At FeelExim, we supply high-quality Indian turmeric sourced directly from trusted farmers and processed under strict quality standards. Our turmeric is known for its rich color, strong aroma, and high curcumin content, making it ideal for food processing, pharmaceuticals, cosmetics, and spice blending industries worldwide.
We ensure consistent quality, hygienic processing, and reliable global supply for our international buyers.

Product Overview

Turmeric (Curcuma Longa)

Turmeric is a natural spice widely used in cooking, medicine, and health supplements. It contains curcumin, the active compound responsible for its bright yellow color and powerful health benefits.
Our turmeric is carefully cleaned, dried, and processed to maintain its natural purity and potency.

Available Forms

- Turmeric Fingers (Whole): Whole dried turmeric rhizomes known as fingers are widely used by spice processors and international buyers.
- Turmeric Powder (Ground) : Finely ground turmeric powder produced from selected turmeric fingers under hygienic conditions.
